

Lost and Found Policy

Staff of the Pitts Theology Library work hard to ensure that the library is a welcoming and comfortable place for all to work. Library users can help in this effort by not leaving their belongings unattended in the library. This will discourage theft and makes Library spaces available for use by others. The Library is not responsible for the belongings of library patrons, and items left unattended for significant periods of time will be moved to make space for other patrons. Items left in the library at the time of closing will be moved to the Library's Lost and Found at the circulation desk. Lost and Found items will be kept for up to one month but then be considered unwanted and so repurposed, given away, or discarded. If you have any questions about this policy, please contact a Pitts reference librarian.

Revised Date: 2022-01-21